From: President Franklin D. Roosevelt:
'In meeting the troubles of the world we must meet them as one people with a unity born of the fact that for generations those who have come to our shores, representing many kindred and tongues, have welded by common opportunity into a united patriotism. If another form of government can present a united front in its attack on democracy, the attack must and will be met by a united democracy. Such a democracy can and must exist in the United States.'
